

Ref T&D17

Health and Safety Representatives and Committees Training – Level 2

Course Duration:

1 day

Course Aim / General Introduction:

This course is designed to develop the knowledge base & skills of delegates to enable them to effectively represent the health & safety interests of colleagues and contribute to the safety culture within the business through the health and safety committee.

Learning Outcomes:

- Use planning in their work as health and safety representative
- Communicate effectively in a health and safety context
- Take up health and safety problems identified by members
- Be aware of the key health and safety law pertaining to health and safety representatives
- Undertake a health and safety inspection of the workplace
- Understand the limitations of the role of health and safety representatives

Who should attend this course?

Suitable for both new and existing health and safety representatives

Teaching and Learning / Assessment:

- Group / Individual exercises
- Case study
- Group discussion

Capacity:

12 people

Price:

- In-house session @ £420, plus VAT
- In-house session @ £75, plus VAT per additional delegate
- Grouped training @ £195 per person, plus VAT
- One to one session @ £200 per person, plus VAT

Qualification:

On successful completion of this course students will be awarded the OCN Level 2 award in Health and Safety Representatives and Committees.

The award is issued through Life Environmental and The National Open College Network who are approved as an awarding body with the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority (QCA).

For further information, including course booking:

Telephone: 0113 2700775 / 07894 488628

